NAISH

ONE HUNDRED YEARS

Established in 1926 following a generous land donation by Belle Naish in memory of her husband, the Theodore Naish Scout Reservation has served as a premier outdoor classroom for Scouts for a century. Nestled in the rolling hills high above the Kaw River Valley in Bonner Springs, Kansas, Camp Naish will mark this centennial with a dedicated celebration on June 13, 2026. For generations of Scouts, this landscape has been more than just a camp; from the rugged trails of the Rimrock to the enduring traditions of the Tamegonit Lodge, it remains a cherished place where character, leadership, and adventure are forged.

To celebrate this centennial of Scouting, we are also releasing a series of limited edition patch sets to commemorate the historic milestone.
