2016 GOLDEN EAGLE - DISTRICT FALL CAMPOREE

INFORMATION SHEET

Where:

Wilderness Camp Retreat
34030 W. 204th St
Lawson, MO. 64062

BE PREPARED:

Every unit and scout should BE PREPARED for any and all types of weather. Camporee will continue regardless of the weather. You have the high potential of getting wet and/or muddy, be prepared!

Check In:

Check in for the Troops/Webelos are October 21st from 5:00 PM until 9:00 PM. Upon arrival, you will be asked to identify your unit prior to proceeding to your campsite. Set up camp and an adult leader will bring the completed Troop/Webelos attendance roster and any remaining fees to the District/Camporee Headquarters. Final check-in will occur Saturday Morning at Camporee HQ. All vehicles will be removed from campsites by 9:30 PM. EACH UNIT is required to verify their numbers by 10AM on Saturday.

Fees:

Registration fees for Scouts and Scouters are $10.00 per person. Webelos fees are $10.00 each for both boys and adults. Boy Scouts, Venture Scouts and adult leaders are $10.00 each. After October Round table fees are $15.00 per person, on-site registration will be $20 per person. Scouts on-site for the day only will be $5 per person.

Checks are to be payable Heart of America Council. The fees help cover the cost of the awards and facility costs.

Leadership:

The policy of the Heart of America Council and the Boy Scouts of America states that a certified youth protection trained adult over the age of 21 and have TWO DEEP LEADERSHIP in attendance for your scout group outing. It is the unit's responsibility to provide this leadership not the Camporee staff. Each unit should be prepared to provide leadership at the Camporee and at any of the events so we can insure the best program for the scouts.

A scout is Trustworthy:

If any scout loses anything they should check with the lost & found at the District Headquarters. If any scout finds anything he should turn it at the lost & found at the District Headquarters.

First Aid:

Every Troop and Pack in attendance should have signed copies of parental consent for medical treatment for those in attendance, health form. Just as a typical troop campout your unit will be responsible for its own first aid. If there is a need for additional help please contact the Camporee Headquarters ASAP.

Safe Scouting:

Review the Guide to Safe Scouting with all in attendance so you are familiar with the Scouting policies. Use of tobacco products is not allowed for any scout. Use of tobacco products by adults is not allowed in any of the program areas including campfire, opening closing ceremony.

2016 GOLDEN EAGLE - DISTRICT FALL CAMPOREE

Religious Service:

Remember that a scout is Reverent and does his duty to God. There will be a non-denominational church service Sunday morning. Every Scout and Scouter is expected to attend in Class A uniform.

A Scout is clean:

Foul language will not be tolerated at the Camporee.

Uniforms:

The Scout uniform for Camporee will be the Class B uniform at Opening. Closing Ceremony will be Class A, which will consist of Scout Shirt, Scout Pants and/or Scout Shorts, with Scouts Socks or Blue Jean Pants or Blue Jean Shorts and a Scout Belt. If your Troop wears a neckerchief, everyone must have a neckerchief. All shirts will be worn buttoned and tucked in. Troop hats are optional. No sandals or open toed shoes.

Campsites:

Campsites will be on first come basis. There will be no vehicles in a campsite. We will have a trailer parking lot; trailers should not be pulled into campsites. Trailers that get stuck in field will be the Troops responsibility to be removed from site. Absolutely no ditches are to be dug around your tent. All fires must be off the ground. Charcoal or wood may be used for your cooking fires. Bring your own fuel for your fire, wood is not available at the campsite. Any remaining wood should be taken with you when you check out. Ashes should be out cold and dispersed or hauled away.

NO LIQUID FUEL FOR FIRES.

Water:

Campsites are not close to water; we will have a supply of water close by. Please come prepared with water to start cooking in the morning. Scouts can come to water Buffalo to refill as needed.

Haul your own trash out of your campsite, there is no place for disposal of your trash at the campsite.

A Scout is friendly:

The Camporee staff feels it is important that your chartered partner and charter organization representative see your troop in action. Please invite them out for a visit on Saturday maybe for dinner and stay for the campfire. Webelos leaders, their parents are encouraged to come to Camporee. Invite the Webelos of your Cub Pack to participate in the program!

Please direct all questions to:

Mike Provence, Camporee Chair: fonmankc@yahoo.com or C 816-807-3573

Adam Singleton, District Executive for Golden Eagle: adam.singleton@scouting.org
P 816-942-4950 C 307-421-7288

All units are asked to complete survey, we would like feedback from all in attendance this includes your scouters. Have them use their personal scouting device or yours and complete the on-line survey: <http://www.goldeneaglekc.net/activity-survey>

Cooking Competition

Overview: Cooking is an important Scout Skill. Beyond cooking with traditional Scout cooking vehicles, this becomes more of a challenge. Today, your patrol will set forth a feast for our panel to judge you on your creativity and delivery.

Rules:

1. Entries must be to the judging area by 5:30 PM.
 - a. Entries will be delivered in a container provided by the Camporee Staff. This container will be marked with a number assigned to your patrol/unit by the staff. Any identification beyond this number could result in disqualification.
 - b. If you bring it to the panel too early, it may be cold and therefore not receive as good of a score.
2. Preparation is to be done exclusively by Scouts.
 - a. Safe food handling is a requirement.
 - b. Scouters, this means hands off for you.
 - c. All food and cooking equipment is to be provided by the unit. The Camporee staff will have no materials for units to use.
3. The mystery ingredients must be used.
 - a. The mystery ingredient will be revealed with enough time to come up with a good menu and delivered to the units via Constant Contact.
 - b. The mystery ingredient must be supplied by the units. No mystery ingredients will be supplied by the Camporee Staff.

Prizes/Awards:

- Dessert 1st, 2nd, 3rd

Prizes - TBD
