

2017 Golden Eagle Klondike

January 21, 2017

- What is it? The Klondike Derby is a contest requiring teamwork. Boy Scout patrols of 5 to 8 members pull a Klondike type sled over a course that tests Scouting Skills. The team acquiring the most points through the course wins.
- When? Saturday January 21, 2017. Sled Check-in is from 7:30 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. Activities begin at 9:00 a.m.
- Where? Shoal Creek Living History Museum, 7000 NE Barry Rd., Kansas City, MO 64156 (located in Hodge Park).
- Cost/Registration? $8 per camper if paid by 1/5/17. $10 per camper if paid after 1/5/17. This covers the cost of the patch, awards, and facility costs. All fees are payable at time of registration. Checks should be made payable to the Heart of America Council, BSA (please no cash). Credit Cards accepted on-line.
- Insurance: Liability as well as Sickness and Accident Insurance is provided for all registered members and leaders of the Heart of America Council.
- Refunds: There will be no refunds. Funds may be transferable to another scout if a scout is unable to attend or over payment can be transferred to unit account.
- More Info? Contact Phil Symmonds at 816-792-2179 or email psymmonds@kc.rr.com or Dusty Boatright at 816-569-4967 or e-mail Dustin.Boatright@scouting.org. <http://www.hoac-bsa.org/ge-klondike-derby-2017-01-20>
