New Member Coordinator: WHY, WHAT, WHO, HOW

It's all about the

But It's not just an initial greeting – it's building engagement, relationships, and a strong sense of belonging.

WHY?	WHY was the position of New Member Coordinator developed? To strengthen units and address national membership challenges!
	FOR THE UNIT		FOR THE BSA
	To ensure that everyone is welcomed and engaged		To welcome populations not previously reached
	To encourage families to stay and feel that they belong		To increase retention as well as recruitment
	To foster gradual adult volunteerism		To engage millennial parents
WHAT?	WHAT do New Member Coordinators do? They welcome new youth and families, help develop unit membership plans, collaborate with districts.
	Individuals on unit NMC teams can choose tasks that fit their personal interests and unit needs. The 3 categories of NMC work are listed below, and training is available for each.
	Use their personal networks to reach	Help organize and promote joining		Be sure that every youth and family
	wide (perhaps under-served) audience	events and be sure all are invited		are warmly welcomed
	Let everyone know the value of what	Collaborate with districts to ensure		Provide logistical assistance for their children are experiencing	successful membership campaigns		registering and "learning the ropes"
	Spread the word about the long-term	Work with local schools to build		Develop relationships with families s
	and wide-spread impact of Scouting relationships and support			that they feel a sense of belonging
	NMC incorporates the functions of the previous Unit Membership Chair and Parent Coordinator (positions discontinued) while giving flexibility in choice of focus, encouraging teamwork, and providing much more support and training.
